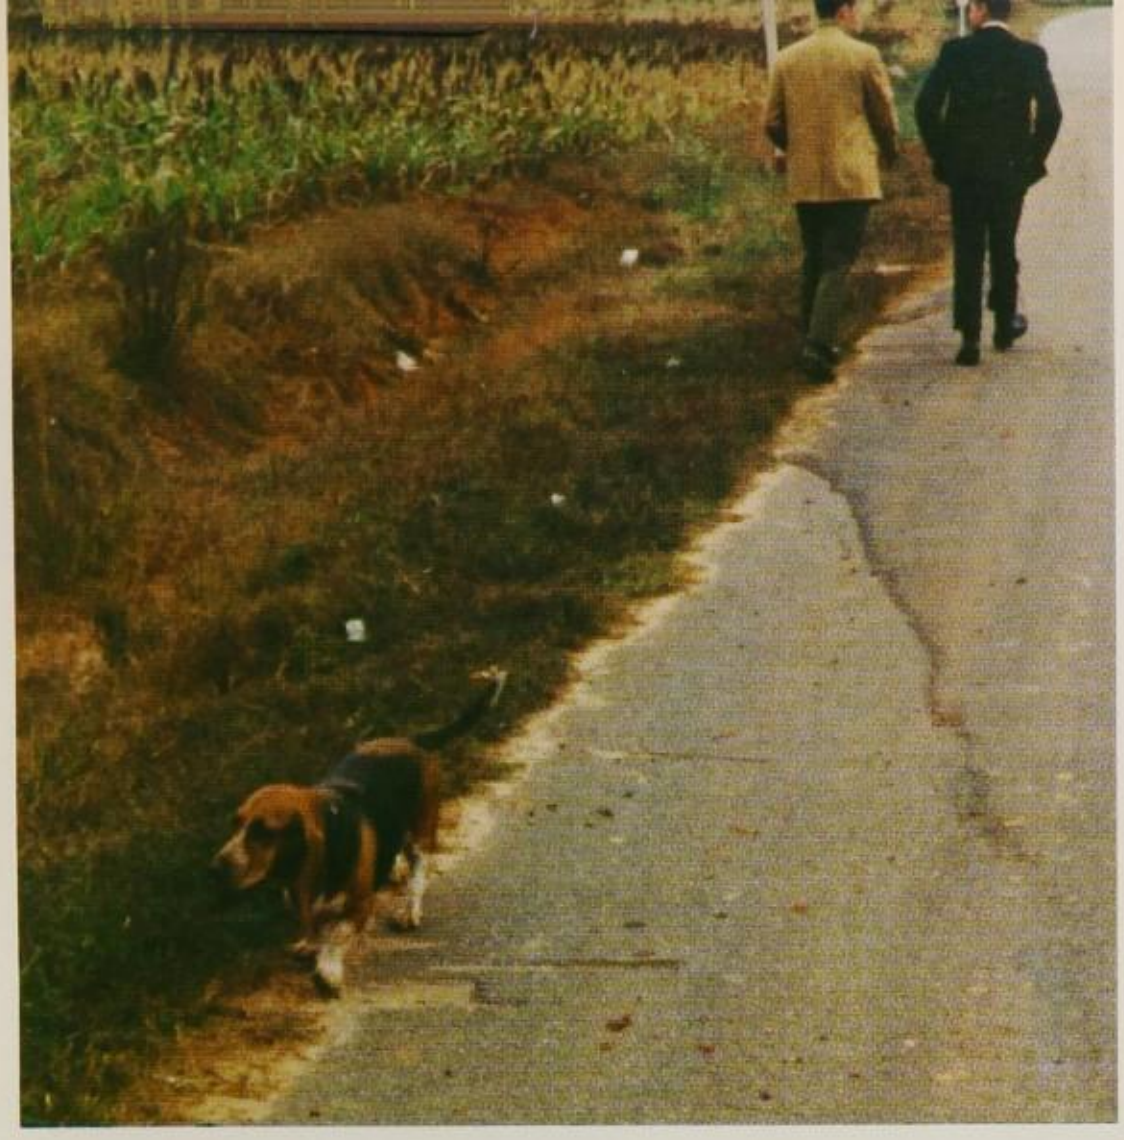
We made our choices . . .



100+ POINT CLUB

It was a time of change . . . .

We discovered that learning was more than textbooks . . . .

We enjoyed the extras of life . . . .

We daydreamed of what we could become . . . .

We preserve memories of moments that are past but remain forever . . . .

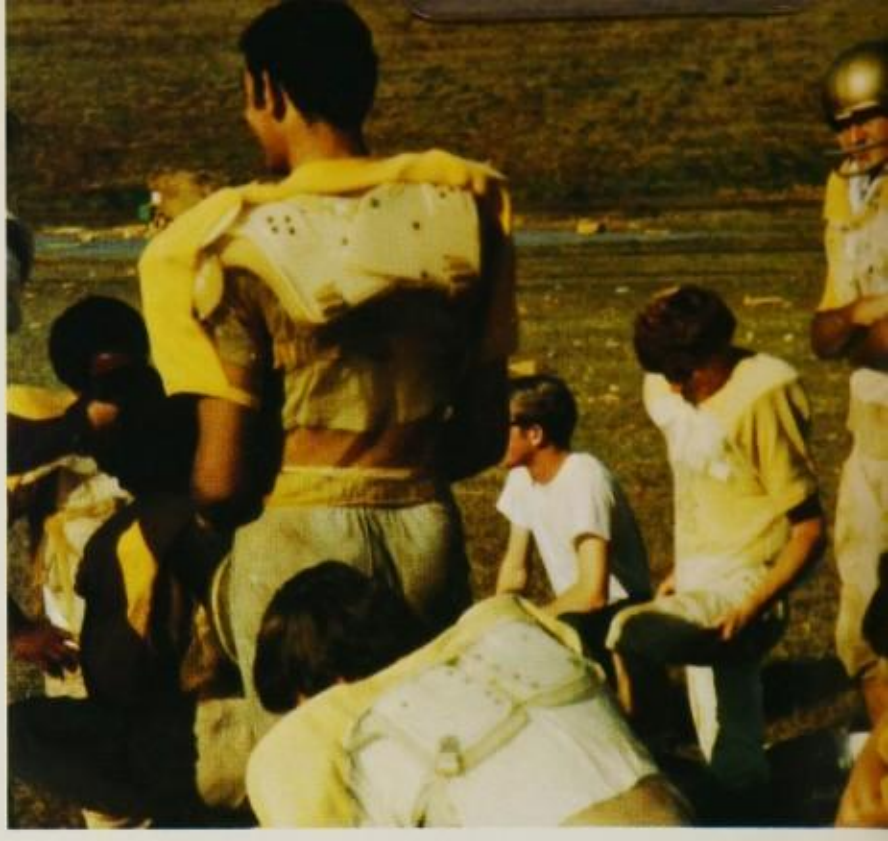
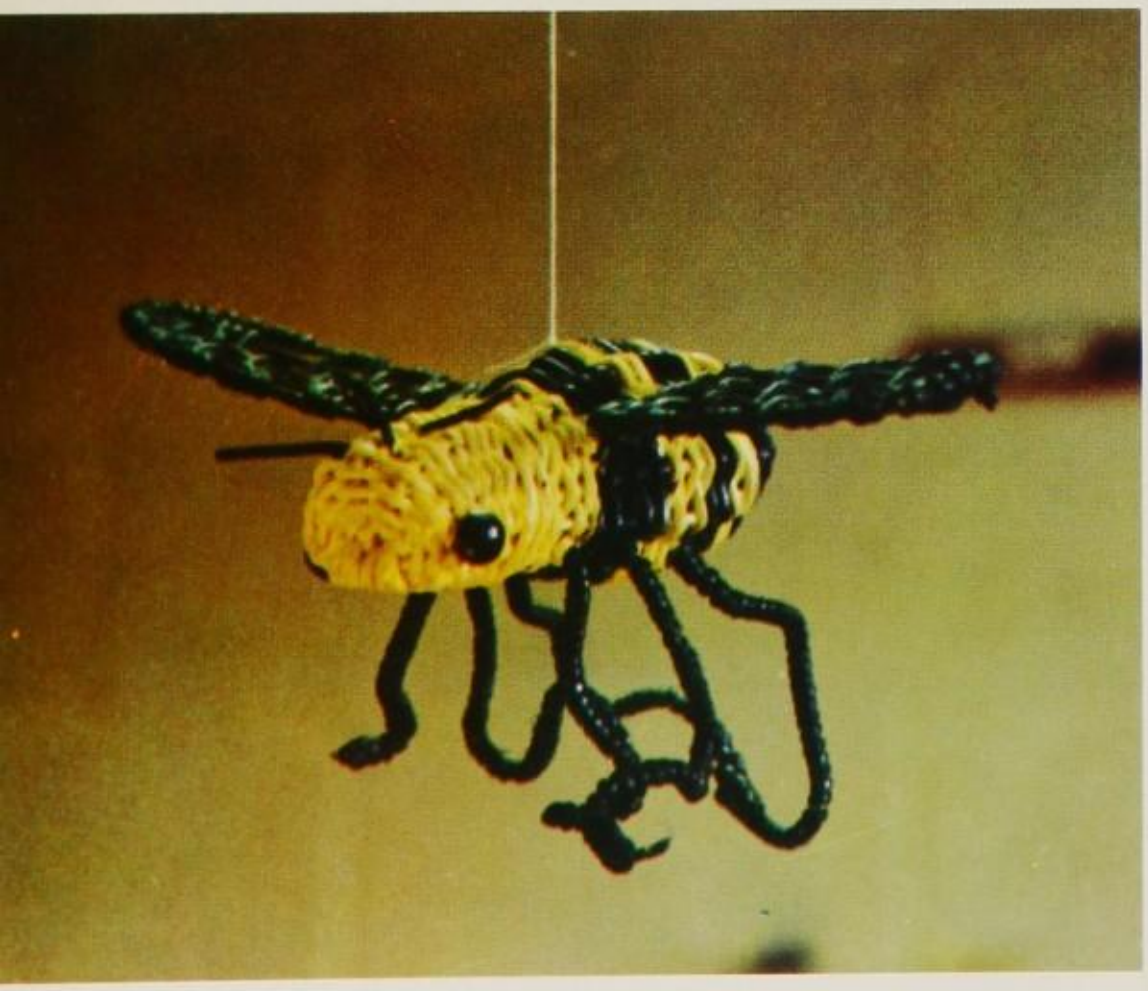
It was a time of change . . .

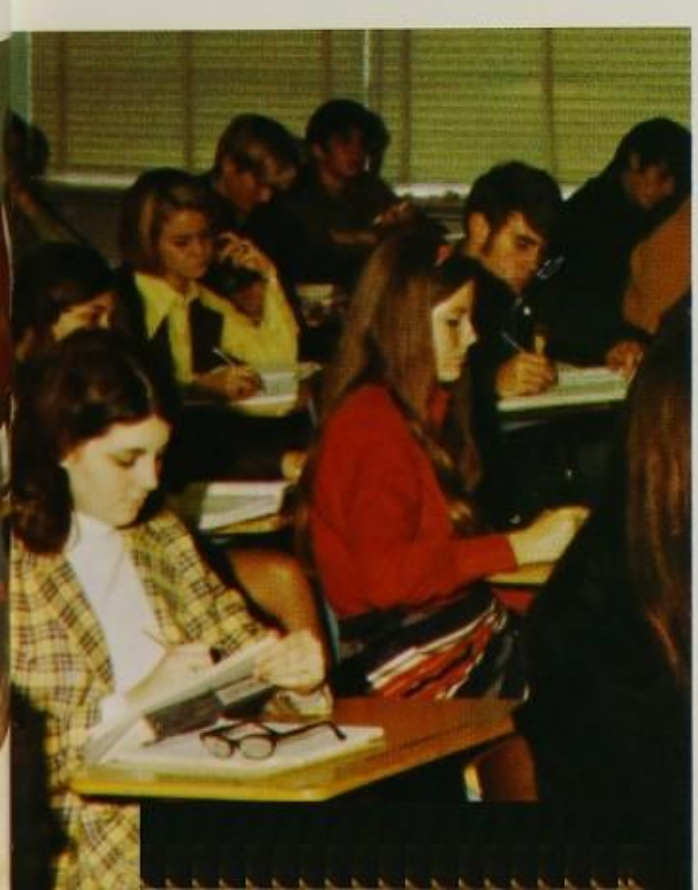
Yet the love of competition, friends,
and country remained constant . . .

We worked together to achieve common goals . . .

Yet always striving to explore the unknown . . .







It was a time of change . . . .

We were given new concepts to evaluate . . . .

We shaped some into realities . . . .

Clouds of change hovered over us, but we remained the class of 1971.

MARILYN

Dedication

Teaching with understanding rather than achievement as his goal, he shares his knowledge and humor with all who know him. His classroom reflects the difference between despotic authority and deserved respect. He challenges minds for tomorrow by extending five fingers of perception rather than just an open hand of knowledge. Joking during the lighter moments, yet returning to seriousness when the time calls, he develops character as well as minds. Because he exemplifies a teacher changing with the times, we dedicate with pleasure the

"Oklahoma"

It was time to present a musical at T. L. After anxious days of waiting, the casts were announced and the scripts arrived. It was time to make a reality out of a dream. People began memorizing lines, learning songs and orchestra scores, painting and building the set, and organizing the publicity. Opening night the cast received two standing ovations. After playing to four full houses at Hanna, the show went to Clemson for two performances. The work and efforts of many people made the musical a success. "Oklahoma" brought many people together and was the beginning of a proud tradition at T. L.

The Wizard of Oz

The Junior-Senior of 1970 was quite a change from the previous proms at T. L. Hanna. Many students followed the "yellow brick road" to the Land of Oz where the music of the Footnotes made their feet move and bodies wiggle. Dorothy, the scarecrow, the lion, the tin man, and the wicked witch greeted their guests graciously.

Girls dancing in their barefeet, guests ignoring the "Please don't pick the poppies" sign, and the drooping of the balloon were signs that the momentous night had come to an end.

A time for celebration?

The lion goes through many changes before he ready for trip to Oz.

Poppy field receives finishing touches as the preparations end.

Steve's Navy work keeps him busy.

The T. L. Hanna High School Star Student for 1970-71 is Stephen D. Thorne. Steve has been chosen on the basis of his superior SAT scores. He will be involved in further competition in the county and eventually in the state. The Star Student Recognition Program is sponsored by the State Chamber of Commerce through the local chapter.

Another part of this program involves the choosing by the Star Student of a Star Teacher, one who has been instrumental in his achievement of scholastic success. Steve has chosen as his Star Teacher, Mrs. Frances Smith. Mrs. Smith is employed by District Five as a social studies teacher at McCants Junior High.

Steve served as a representative to Palmetto Boys' State, he represented Hanna as a Hi-Q Contestant, he achieved finalist status in the National Merit Scholarship competition, and he was chosen as a Commencement Marshal. A Senior Superlative, Steve was elected to the prestigious Who's Who Among American High School Students. He has been awarded an appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, and has plans for a career in the U.S. Navy.

This year the YELLOW JACKET had a new look. The former Editorial and Business Staffs were combined into one, due to the fact that the cost of the paper was covered in the activities fee paid at the beginning of school, therefore eliminating the need for a business staff to sell ads.

The Editors and Staff, as well as the Advisors, put in many hours of hard work on our newspaper and are to be commended for their diligent efforts.

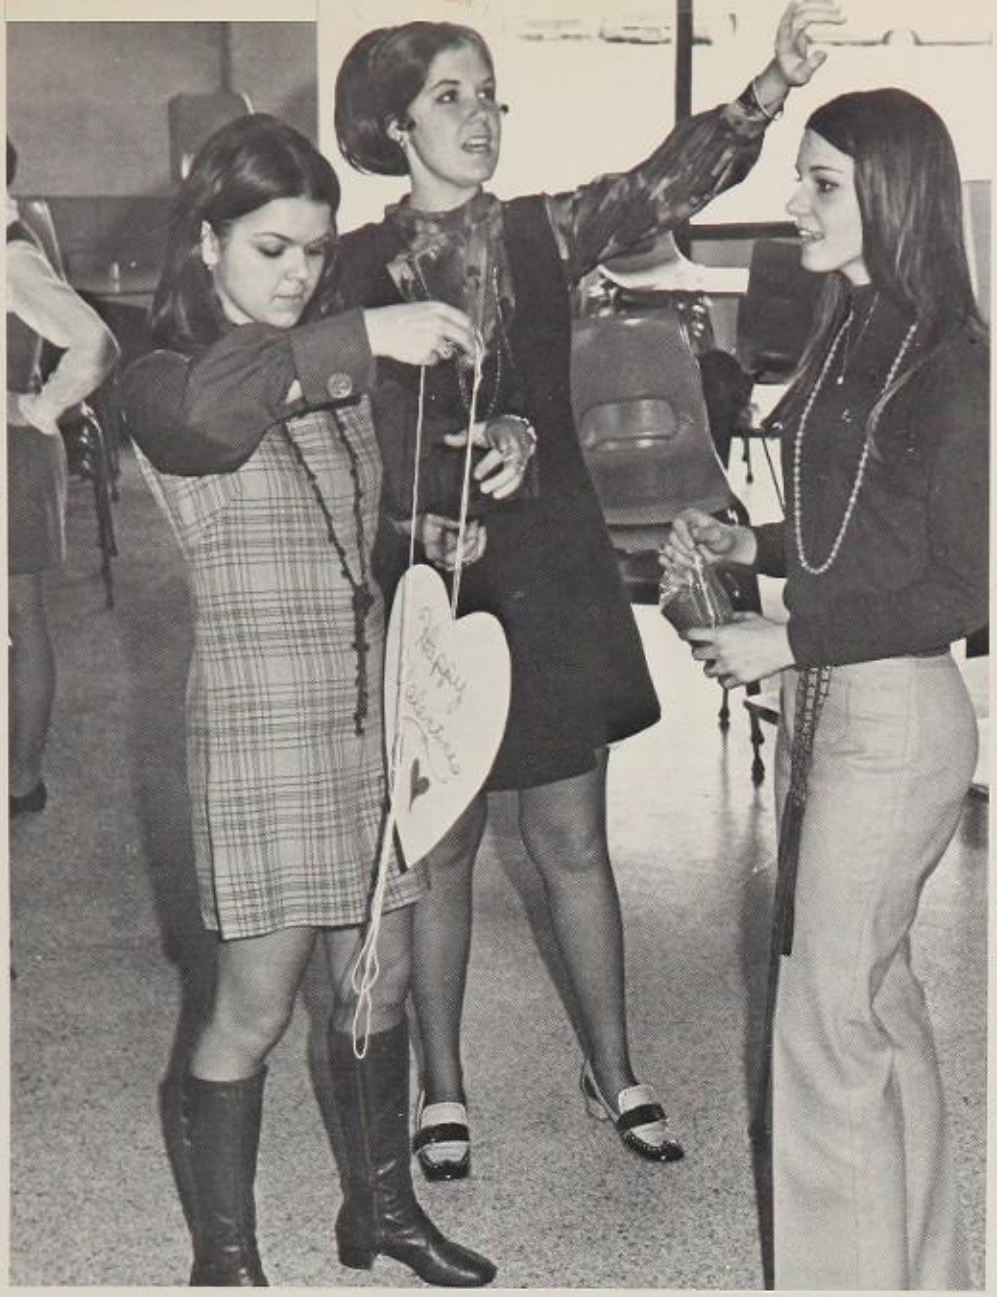
The National Honor Society



"I can see it now!"

The National Honor Society consists of students who have excelled in different aspects of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. This year the society was involved in several new projects. The most successful program was the tutoring service which was conducted on Thursday nights by various society members. This organization also sponsored a Valentine's Dance at the school, presenting music by O. D. Grass. The final project sponsored by The National Honor Society was a Teacher Substitution Day in which members conducted classes for the teachers at the school.

Key Club

The Key Club is a school service organization sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Anderson. It is made up of individuals selected on the basis of faculty recommendation in areas such as leadership, ability and attitude. Some of their service projects the first semester were serving as waiters for the Kiwanis Club pancake supper, speaking to the Kiwanis Club itself on problems facing Anderson's youth, and securing and decorating a Christmas tree for the residents of the Doctor's Memorial Nursing Home.

The second semester, the group joined a tape club and began buying tapes for the school's tape player in the cafeteria. The biggest project of the year was a light bulb sale to get funds for a dance in May, to which prospective new members were invited. It was one of many successful years for the Key Club of T. L. Hanna.

Thespian Society

The Thespian Society is an international organization consisting of persons who have accomplished outstanding achievements in the field of drama. Each year these members sponsor and participate in plays performed for the school and the public. Last year this group promoted the productions, "Up the Down Staircase" and "Oklahoma." This year they sponsored the musical, "Carousel."

This year new members of the Dramatics Club were selected on the basis of try-out performances. Each of the five officers led a group in the presentation of a play or skit at the meetings. All members were encouraged to participate in school plays and productions in order to receive the number of points for induction into the International Thespian Society. The Dramatics Club also promoted the advancement of drama in our school and community as they endeavored to become confident in their own talents.

Band

The band played an important part this year, as always, in the life of our school. Performing at football games, pep rallies, and parades, the band kept spirits high. The band was fortunate to win first place in the Greenwood Christmas parade, and also was honored to have played at the Shrine Bowl and the Governor's Inauguration.

Practicing every day and striving for harmony proved worthwhile when the chorus performed. At the Christmas concert at Trinity Methodist Church, the choir sang both secular and religious music, which was much to the liking of the audience.

The Concert Choir, under the direction of Mr. Jarrett and with Knox Andrews as accompanist, performed for many civic groups and assemblies throughout the year.

Spanish Club

Maintaining a "B" average in second or third year Spanish enables a student to become a member of the Spanish Club. Learning the Spanish culture and gaining an insight into the language and customs helps to bridge the communication barriers. The members increase their Spanish speaking ability and speak the language fluently. Native speakers at the club meetings help to convey more realistic views of the Spanish speaking countries. The year is highlighted by a Spanish fiesta.

Le Cercle Français

Meetings of the French Club are conducted in French in order to increase the members' proficiency in the language. Learning about the location and geography of France proved interesting to the members. Several speakers added to the enjoyment of the club during the year. The aim of the French Club is to develop a greater understanding and awareness of the people and culture of France.

Math Club

To be a member of the Math Club a student must have kept an overall "B" average in all his previous math courses.

Each Math Club meeting is carefully planned to help the members learn more about the rapidly changing field of mathematics. In meetings this year there have been speakers, a computer that played tic-tac-toe with people, and several interesting discussions.

Bus Driver's Club

The members of the Bus Driver's Club provide a valuable service by transporting students in District Five to and from school. To be a member of the club, one must have a state driver's license and a flawless safety record. He must also pass a training program designed by the state. The members perform their important jobs with safety and efficiency and should be commended.

Monogram Club

Developing their skill in athletics the girls in physical education receive points for participation in all phases of the program. They are judged on leadership, scholarship, and attendance as well as sports ability. After earning 100 points they receive an HHS monogram, and with an additional 100 points they receive a block "H". These girls develop a physical well-being as well as high standards of sportsmanship and conduct.

The Tri-Hi-Y Club is composed of girls from the tenth and eleventh grades who want to maintain and extend Christianity to today's youth. They give food and clothes to the needy, donate money for worthy causes, and try to keep clean speech, sportsmanship, living, and moral behavior. By creating and maintaining high standards through the school and community, the members of Tri-Hi-Y gain recognition and achievement in life.

Artists' League

Inviting membership from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, the Artists' League enjoys the arts of today. Presenting programs that appeal to all students furthers the appreciation of culture among its members. The club increases respect for the creative individual and encourages participation in the performing arts in all of its diversity of origin and variety of form. Reaching out for experience which art alone can provide, one can explore the side of life which expresses emotions and ideals.

Naval Junior R.O.T.C.

Battalion Staff: Steve Thorne, Commander; George Holman, Executive Officer; Ted Coleman, Personnel; Mike Crocker, Supply; Neal McCraw, Drill Team; Don Cox, CPO.

This was the fourth year that the N.J.R.O.T.C. Program has been at T.L. It was the most successful in the unit's history. A genuine concern for the welfare of the battalion on the parts of all cadet officers, instructors, and the cadets themselves brought about an "espirit de corps" unique to this year's unit. The incorporation of several new programs provided for more efficient and expedient procedures in matters of discipline and policy. An honor code board was formed to handle affairs concerning the central most ingredient of the Navy unit, the Honor Concept.

Many activities took place this year. The unit had several invited speakers to come in, among them a nuclear submarine commander and a Naval Academy recruiting officer.

The formal inspection by the officer in charge of all N.J.R.O.T.C. Units in the Sixth Naval District was followed by the annual Fall Military Ball. Breaking custom, the unit replaced the Spring Military Ball with a dance for the entire student body.

The final and most looked forward-to events were the sophomore, junior, and senior field trips. All this combined to make it a "year to remember" for the N.J.R.O.T.C. Battalion.

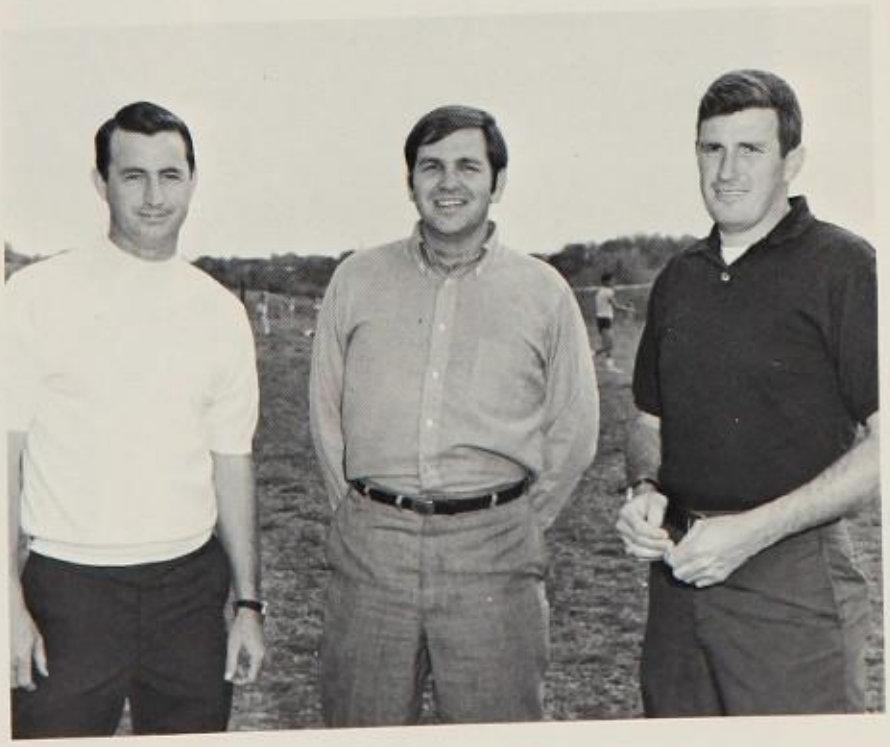
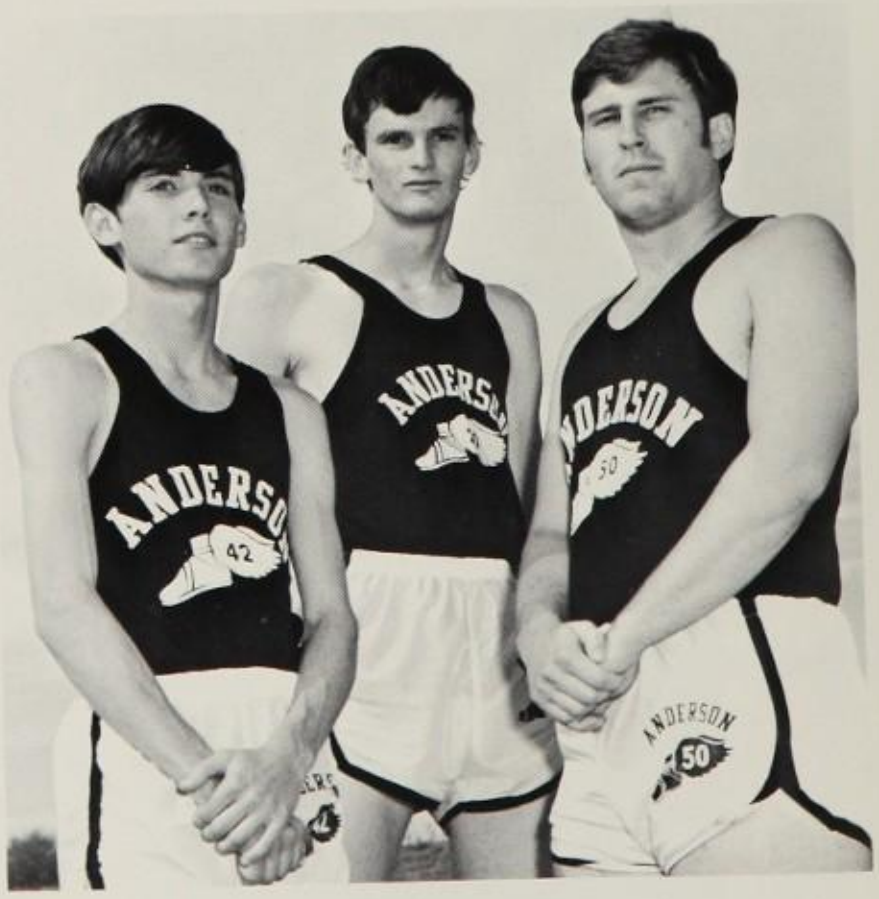
Yellow Jacket Track



Coaches: Dennis Patterson, Head Coach; Cliff Satterwhite, Harold Jones.



Co-Captains: Rod Dalton, Henry Watt, Tom Harrison.

Dalton and Smith set the pace.

Many people say that the 1970 track team was the best ever. It was certainly one of the most hard-working. The cindermen began working out in the middle of February for the first meet on March 8. They could be found on any weekday lifting weights, jogging, sprinting, stretching, and "making it hurt" until near dusk. This built a team spirit that is usually lacking in a track team, and it showed through in an undefeated season.

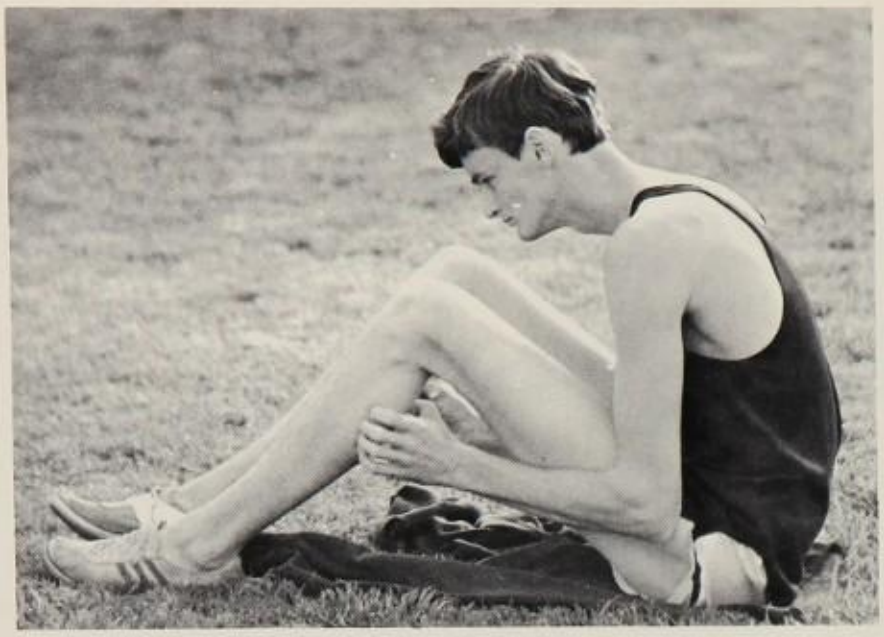
Bowen shows determination as the enemy shows strain.



Henry psyches up . . .

The hard work, pain, and courage shown in these pictures paid off in more ways than one. Several members of the team received track scholarships, and each individual gained a sense of pride and satisfaction from saying that he was on the 1970 Yellow Jacket Track Team. It was a good year, and future teams will have their work cut out to live up to the reputation these men gained.

ANDERSON

Quarterback Steve Whitfield led this year's Jackets to their best season since 1958. This team showed some of the best spirit seen in recent years, and with such standouts as Reno Allen, Buck Thompson, and Ed Rice, outscored their opponents 293-57. As Region 2-AAAA Champions, the Jackets were rewarded for their long hours of hard practice. The team completely upheld Anderson's record of athletic excellence and was undoubtedly one of the best in the history of the school.

Coaches: Wayne Jones, Harold Jones, Jim Fraser (Head Coach), William Floyd, Carroll Emery.

Time for a Coke.

Anderson takes it from Greenwood for the first time in twelve years.

Makison and Browning close in on Carolina.

Jackets sail by Hillcrest, Parker, and Carolina unscored upon.

Jacket defense waits for the play.

Greenville hands the Yellow Jackets their first loss 10-0 . . .

Ellington and Calhoun on the move against the Falls.

. . . but T.L. comes back at Homecoming to whip Great Falls 43-6.

Never catch Rice.

Hanna tops Greer 35-0.

Whitfield throws five TD passes and Hanna crushes Easley.

Happy Jackets take a break.

Fuller noses across.

Mann falls 36-0 . . .

Thompson, Ellington, and Calhoun show a little wear and tear.

. . . and Anderson is set for the Region 2-AAAA championship game.

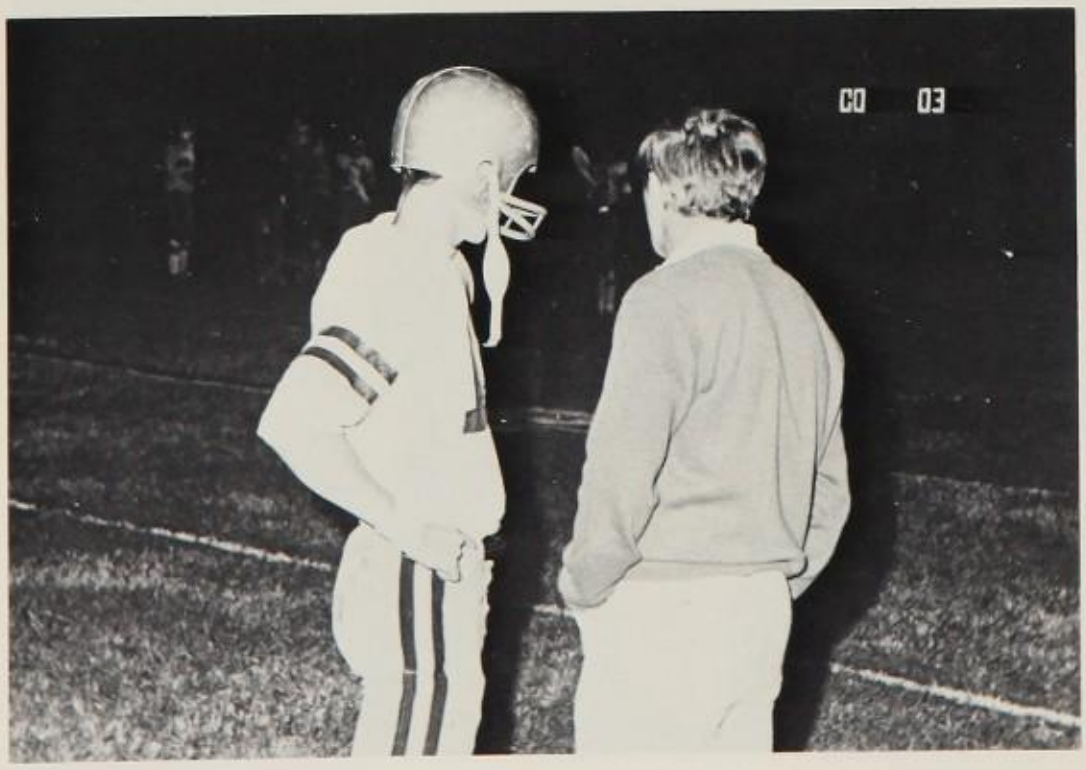
Thick returns a punt at Wade Hampton.

Makison stops the Generals cold.

Buck Thompson's thirty-one yard field goal was the only score in this hard fought defensive game. It came with 3:40 left to play and had every individual in the stadium on the edge of his seat.

Calhoun gains yardage.

Whitfield confers with Coach Fraser as the score is visible on the scoreboard.



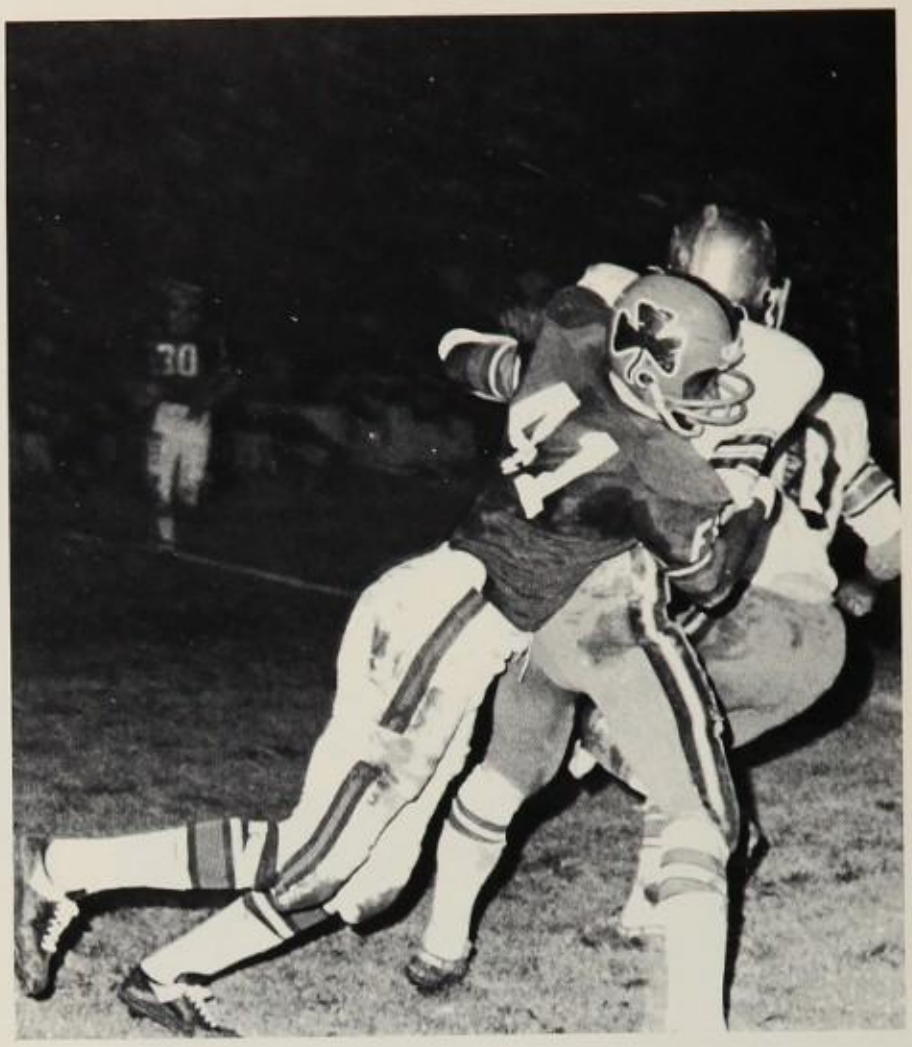
Thick drags down the redskin.

Walters and O'Neal gang up on Gaffney.

Gaffney was the champ of Region 3-AAAA. In the first round of the upper state playoffs, Whitfield bombed them out with four TD passes and Scott ran for the other score. This automatically gave the Jackets a playoff game with Eau Claire High in Sirrine Stadium.

Futility.

The upper state championship game was a fast, hard-hitting contest. Whitfield had his worst game of the season percentage-wise, completing only seven of twenty-six passes. Eau Claire remained undefeated, but was to lose this distinction the next week against Lower Richland in Columbia. Hanna finished the season 10-2 and was indeed the best since '58.



T. L. dragged down from behind.

Shamrocks get up sore.

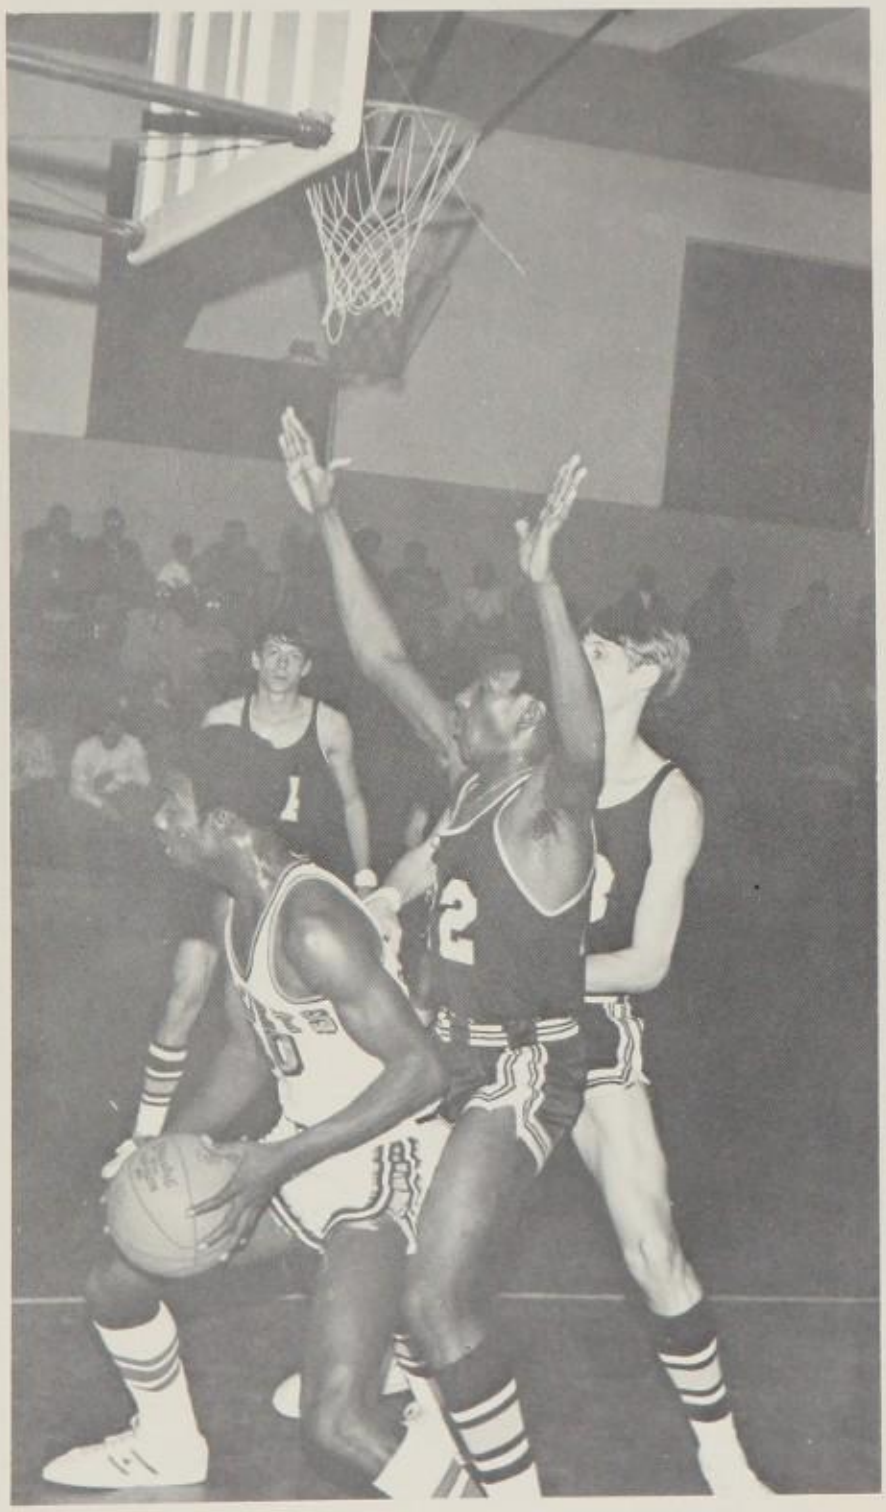
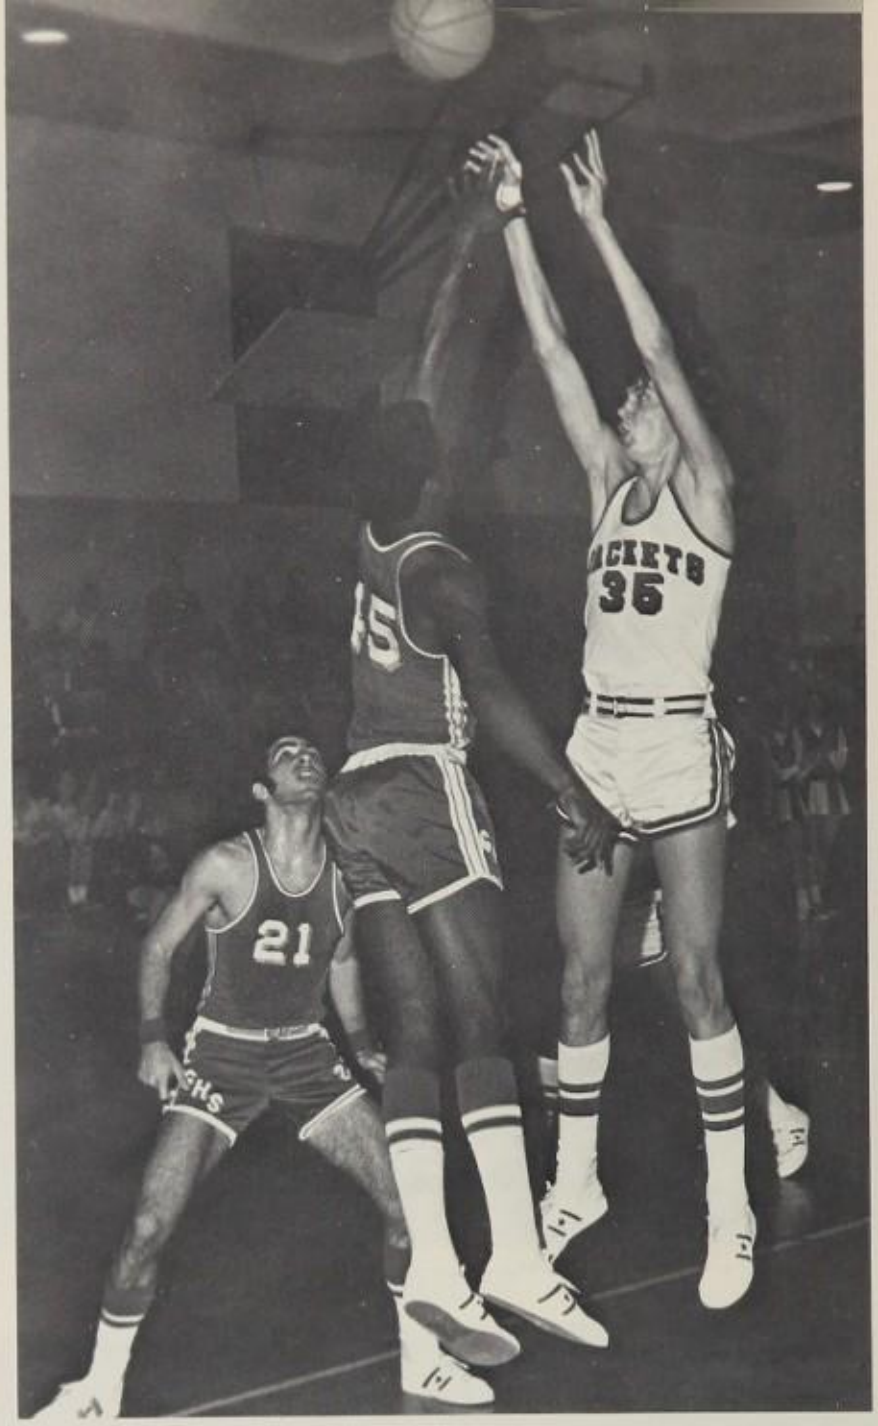
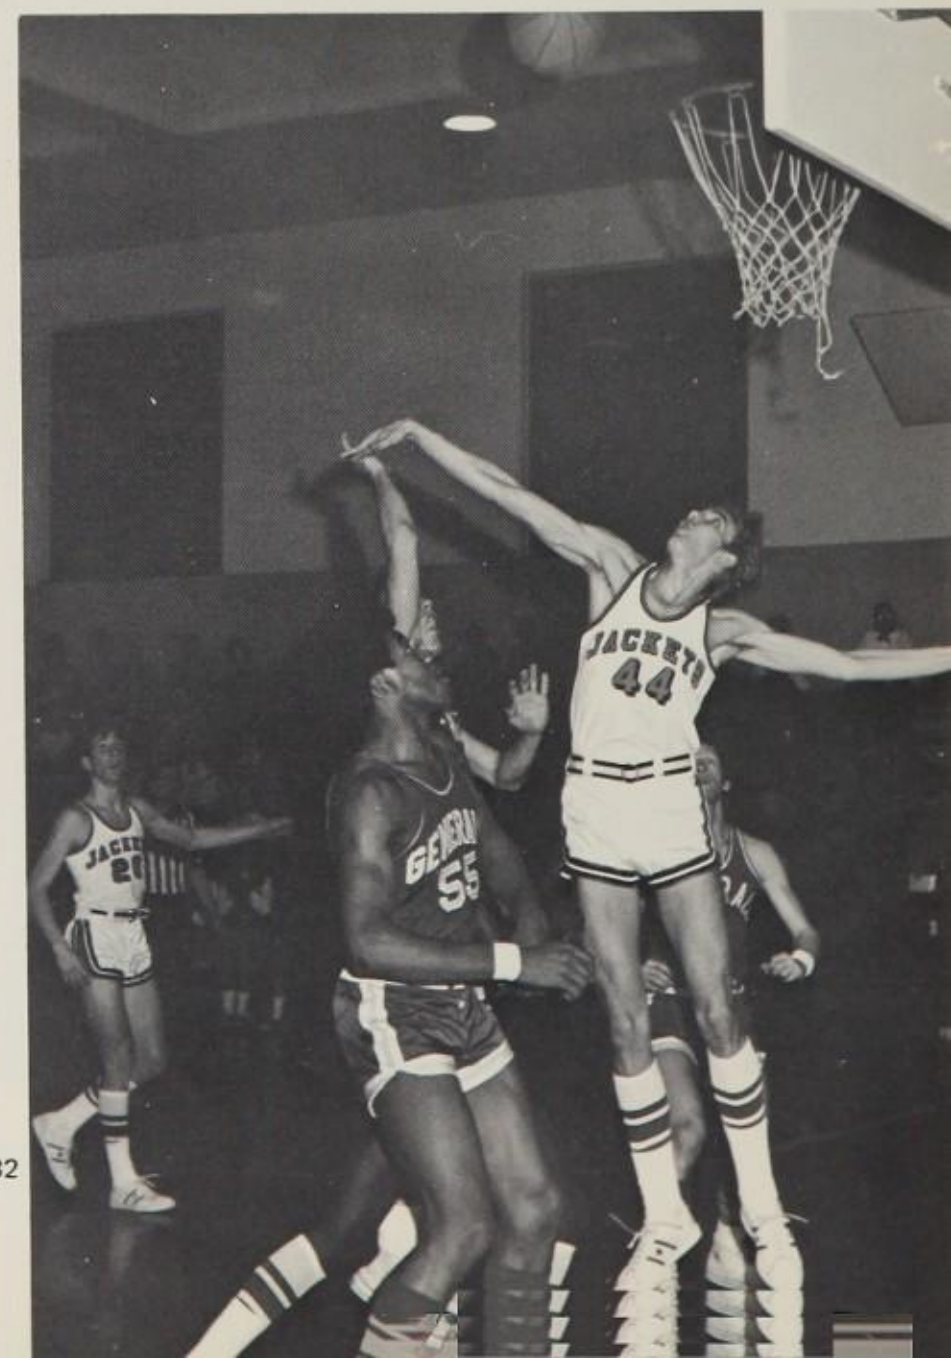
McClindon breaks under.

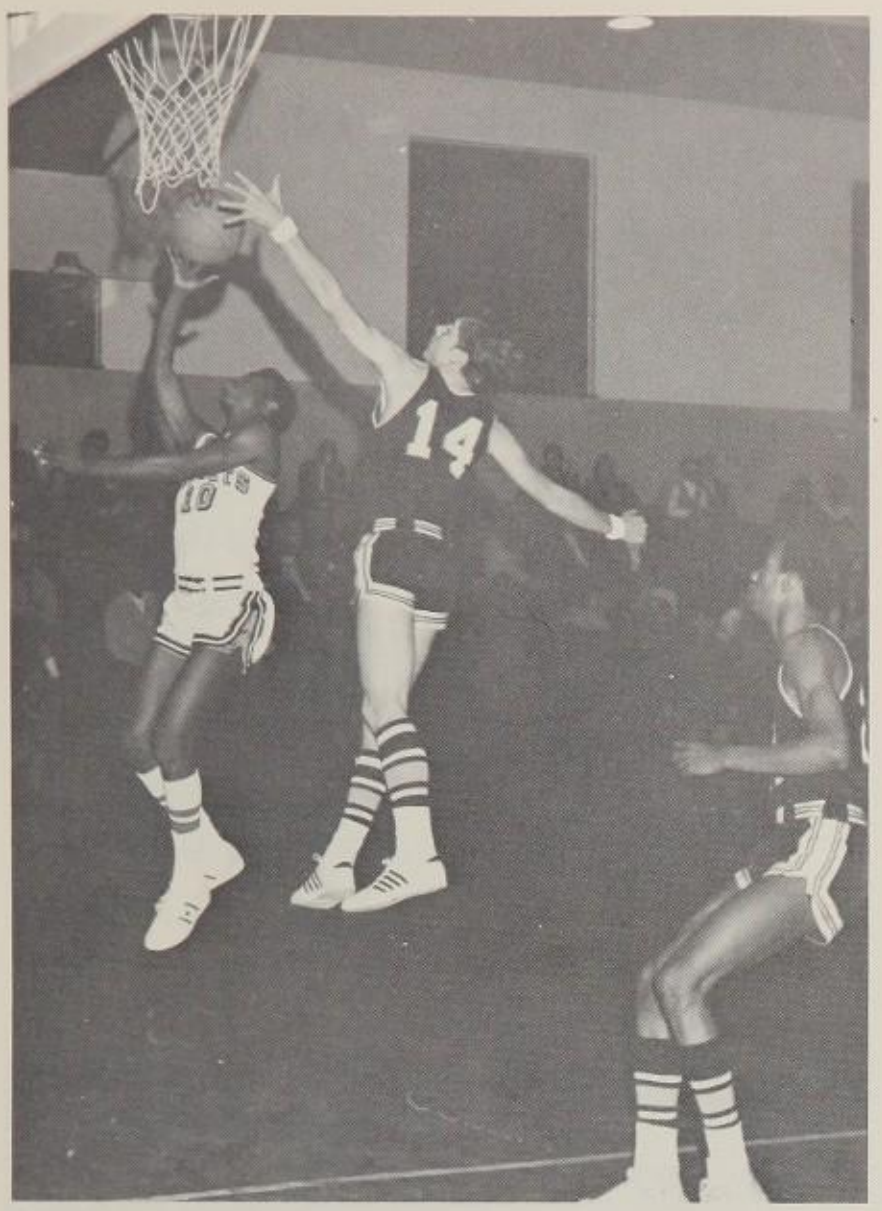




Barry sinks it from outside.

Mack blocks a shot.

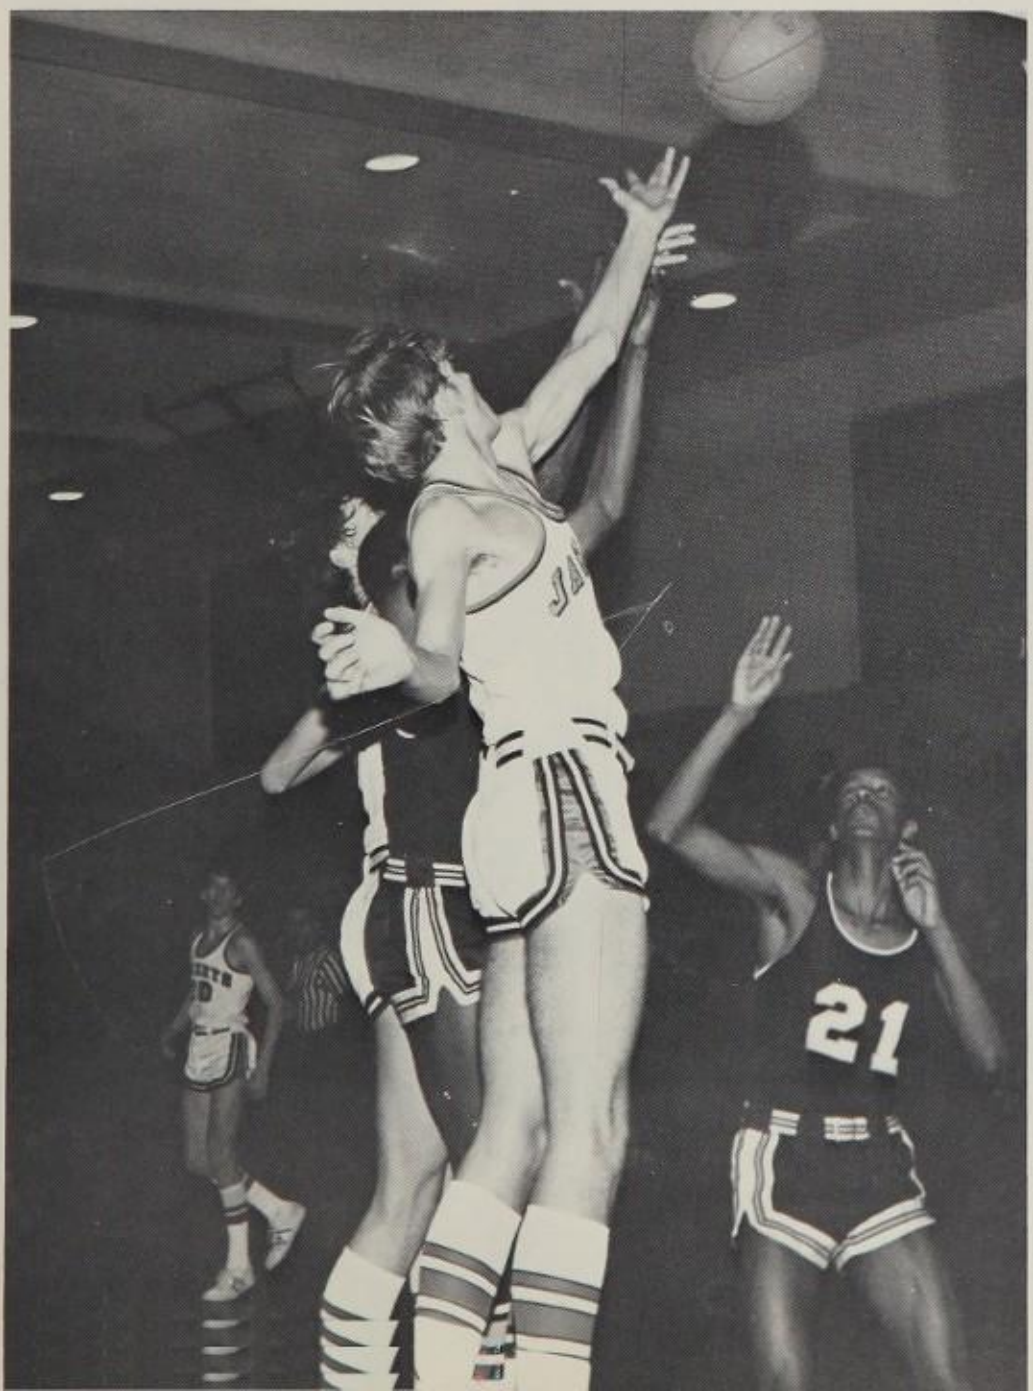




Sammy makes a lay-up.

This year's Yellow Jackets posted a 9-7 record in the region and a 12-7 record overall during the regular season. Led by Barry Isom, who averaged 16.5 points and 11.7 rebounds per game, the team was a threat to all on the schedule. Mack Elrod, Sammy Brown, and Jeff Perkins were formidable, both from the field and the foul line. It was another of many great Anderson teams. The region-wide tournament, sponsored by T.L., initiated the new gym to varsity play.

Mack makes two.



McClendon on the one-hand jumper.

Baseball 1970

The 1970 Yellow Jacket baseball team had 8 games won and 7 lost for the season. Coach Emery led his team to a 6-6 standing in the region. Batting a tremendous .432 average was Mike West, followed by Robert Gambrell with a .392 batting average, and third was Ronnie Eskew with .324. Jack Huggins led in R.B.I.'s, batting in 11 runs. Second was West with 9, and third was Mike Bouchillon with 8 R.B.I.'s. West and Eskew had the highest number of triple plays with 2. Bouchillon led in doubles with 4.

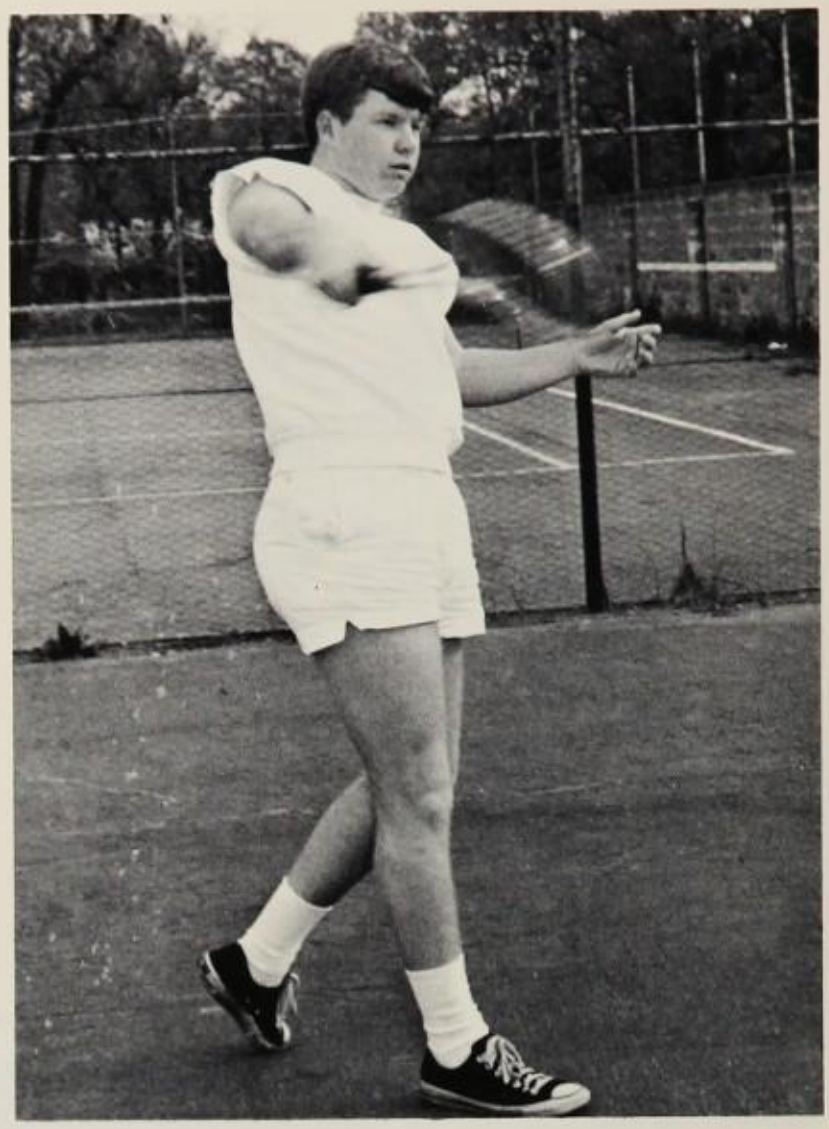
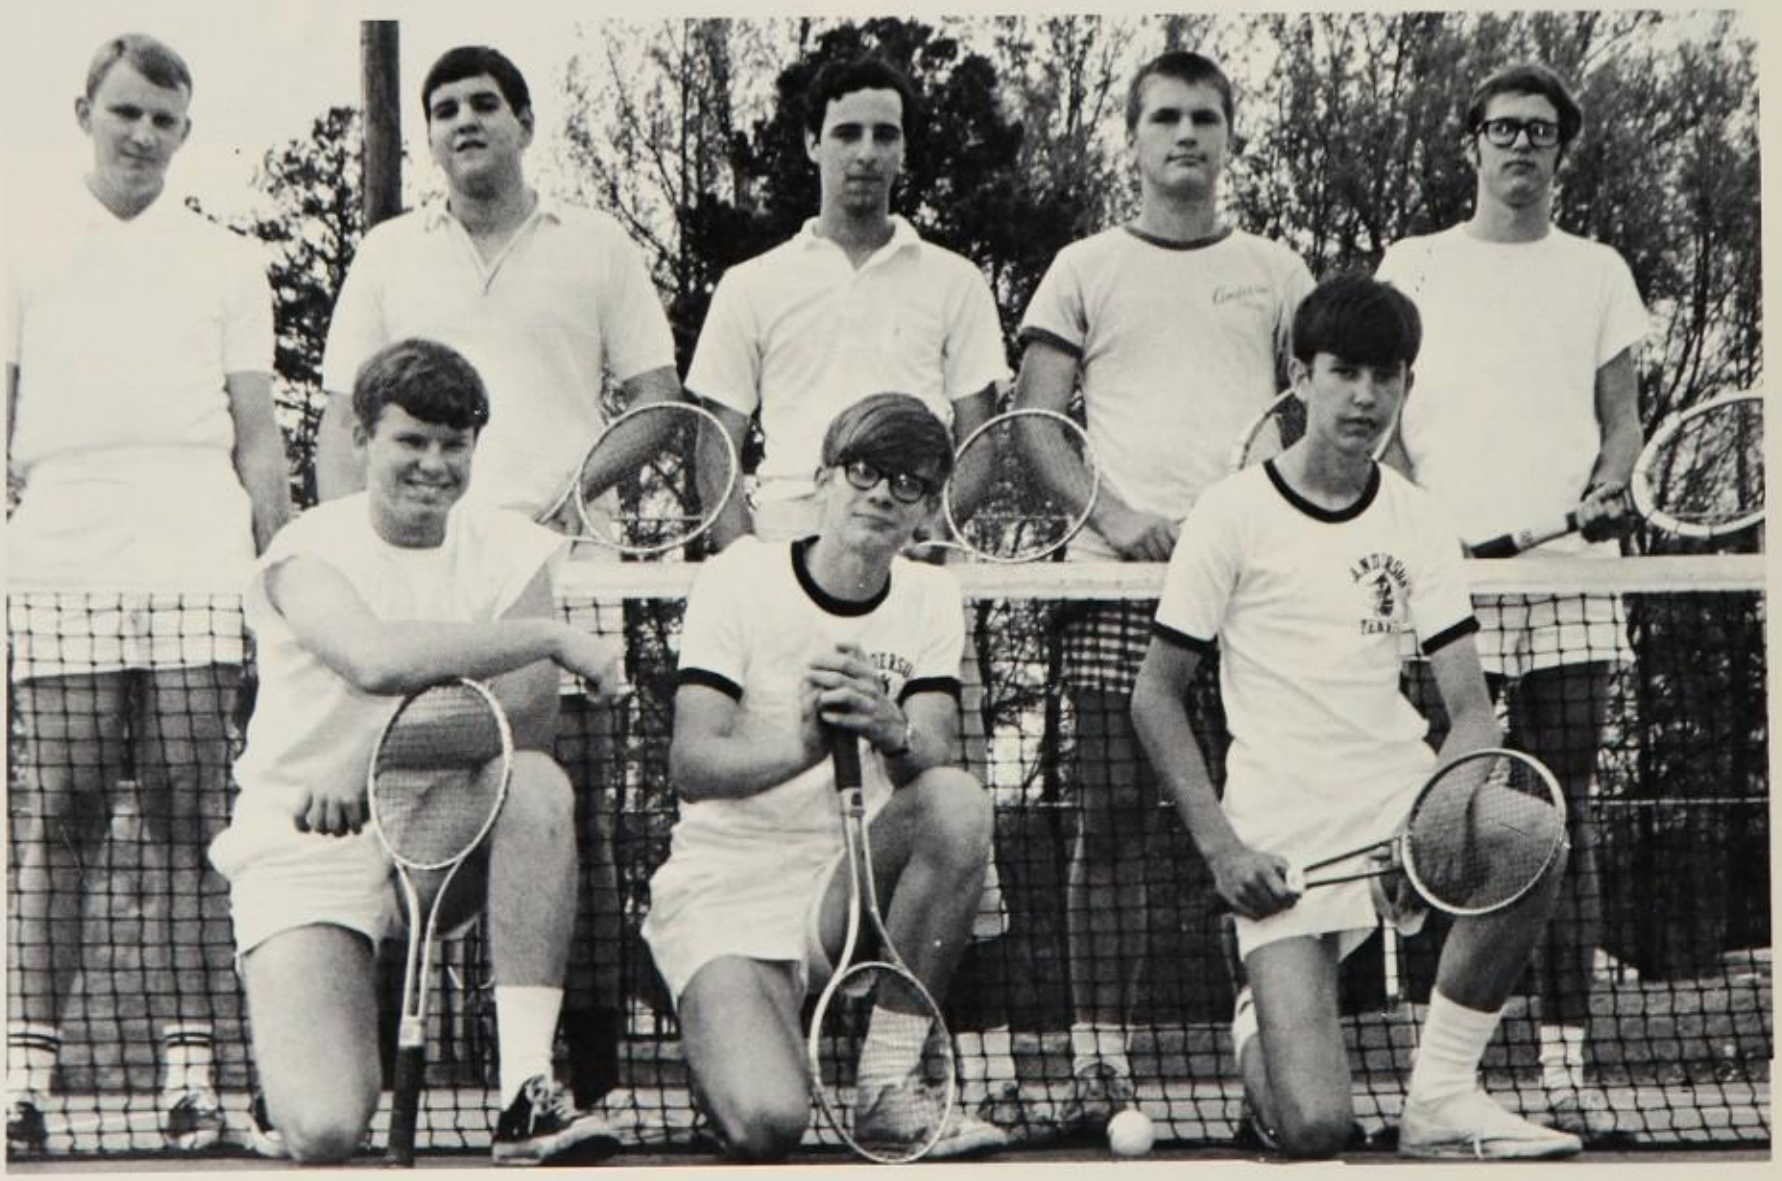
Tennis 1970

Although the T. L. Hanna tennis team won only two games during the 1970 season, the team showed great promise. The team was always determined, and never gave up when behind. Coach Segers did a fine job of helping and encouraging the team. Individual awards went to Rodney McAlister as Most Valuable Player, and Tommy Stegall as Best Sportsman.



Baker returns a serve.

First row: J. Baker, T. Camak, T. Stegall. Second row: Coach Segers, R. McAlister, K. Brush, J. Tribble, C. Whitman.



Cothran displays his powerful swing.

Golf 1970

The 1970 golf season was a good one for the T. L. Hanna High golf team. Led by Coach Jones, the team had a win-loss record of 8-4. The team placed third in the region tournament, and came very close to winning. For the first time in many years a golf team representing T. L. Hanna entered the state playoffs. Team members attending this tournament were Eddie Cothran, Vic Owenby, Denny Johnson, and Mike Teasly. The other members of the team were Sammy Albergotti and Ken Rada.

Epilogue

Through experiencing nature we are forced to recognize
The depth or shallowness of our own experience.
We are forced to choose life over existence or Feel guilty in our mockery of it.

We see our ideas and ideals take root and grow with the trees,
Becoming concrete symbols of our constant striving for
Knowledge of ourselves and others.

We seek knowledge with a passion equal only to that with
Which we sustain life.
In essence the two are one, and the One veils itself within
The mysteries of nature.

When all else is gone from a constantly-changing world,
There will be nature.
Nature does not know time: it is the only part of existence
That can laugh at the power of time.

Editors' Note

The year has passed and has been filed away in the bank of memories. For the staff this has been a confusing job. A job which loomed large and forbidding is unbelievably over. A book which was a nebulous shadow at the beginning has become a reality. Working under obvious restrictions, our staff immediately began work after three months preparation. At times the staff worked with superhuman energy; at most other times they nonchalantly wasted three-fourths of the hour.

Taking up residence in Room 201, the staff developed an unprecedented filing system. Because we quickly lost all materials, we failed to meet the first, second and third deadlines.

Because our staff was so unique, we wish to show the disposition and efforts of each individual. Ted, alias "Crip," tried his hand in many activities, succeeding only in meeting his Junior Class deadline. Pouring forth his creativity, he surprised us all with his personalized Valentine sacks. He also used his imagination to put up with May Ligon as Co-Business Manager. Robert "Bye-Bye" Curry did a deserving job on golf and tennis. Mrs. Ashley's renowned typing methods didn't recur in Robert's layouts. The results of Robert's long hours and hard work were seen in the Sophomore and Faculty sections. Annette honored the staff by having the neatest layouts. Her quietness and steady work provided an atmosphere of tranquillity during disorderly meetings. Her efforts produced the Junior-Senior and Faculty sections. Penny "Nickel" Hall managed to have all her deadlines postponed until the last day. She spent her extra time singing and dancing to entertain the rest of the staff. After ruining five annuals with red magic marker, she added the Honors and Cheerleader sections to TIDINGS '71. May Ligon retold the Mother Goose story. She kept all of us laughing and none of us working as she narrated the latest from Belton. Besides helping Ted write receipts, she did an original job on the Homecoming section. Kendra blinded us after the Christmas holidays with her ring. She amused us with her interpretation of Jill. Her Senior Class and Senior Superlative sections are to be commended. Theresa, taking time from her clarinet to assist Ted with the Junior Class, was one of the few who could type. Her ability was seen on many of the clubs. Toni (we don't know all her names) never ceased to amaze us with her tales and encounters. Although she had a wild imagination, she added her efforts to the Senior Class. Stephen "Rosey" Thorne dumbfounded us with his profanity. Although we can't see him at Annapolis, we realize his potential. His Track, Basketball, Football, and Navy sections came after much worry on our part. He survived May Ligon's harassing and proved indispensible. Mrs. Burriss was always around to help with club pictures. Mr. Keith took time out from his latest creations to give us advice and encouragement. Mr. Pruitt's patience with our ignorance made Tidings '71 a reality.

Paula & Joey

For a complete picture of how TIDINGS '71 was created, one must be familiar with the two who inspired this work of art. First of all there is Paula. We all got the distinct impression that "Little Bo Peep" didn't like us when she would ask us to do stupid things like layouts, but when she gave us "used" Valentines with her five word vocabulary, "Did you do your layouts?" engraved on the back, we knew it. And then there is Joey. We discovered quickly that he was not only talented as a photographer but that he could forge Mr. Pruitt's signature like a professional. We feel it is important to warn any of Joey's future employees that he embezzles money and lists it in the books as a business expense. Where is all that film you bought, Joey? Our editors worried a lot. They griped a lot. The only thing they didn't do a lot of was work. Nevertheless, they were the editors, we were the staff, and this is TIDINGS '71.
